G. NEW BUSINESS

i. GoForward Gahanna Results

Euton shared the GoForward Gahanna results with the Board. Staff continues working on 2016-2017 initiatives. The initiatives will be reflective of the Goforward results, the Mayor's commentment and the P&R Master Plan.

ii. Make Gahanna Yours

Euton shared that Make Gahanna Yours is A city Beautification and Pride initiative. The group is an all volunteer, citizen driven committee organized to identify and implement projects that will beautify our community, increase desirability of commercial and residential real estate, promote the quality of life in Gahanna by encouraging a livable, walkable downtown district characterized by arts, culture, retail and entertainment and an all around beautiful, family oriented city.

It was suggested that someone from the group should attend the Gahanna Parks & Recreation Foundation meeting.

iii. Wine Guy Kitchen & Bar proposal

Euton shared that the new owner of the Wine Guy at Creekside would like to expand their liquor permit to include the pergola just to the north of their outdoor patio. They would like to include food and alcohol service to the area. They will pay the Department a rental fee. The Department is taking the request to Council.

H. CORRESPONDENCE AND ACTIONS

Euton shared there was a complaint about a rental at the Golf Course Clubhouse. There were a lot of people showed up at a party that were not invited. An altercation broke out, there was an off duty Police Officer in attendance who called in a Code 3, various Police agencies that responded to the call. The attendees scattered throughout the neighborhood. The Police stopped everyone and searched those that were still present. A letter of complaint was received from a resident.
