Immediately Following Finance

ROLL CALL:

Present 3 - Karen J. Angelou, Jamie Leeseberg, and Thomas R. Kneeland

ADDITIONAL ATTENDEES:

Council Chair Larick, Mayor Stinchcomb, Dottie Franey, Matt Holdren, Karl Wetherholt, Joann Bury, Chief Murphy, Gen. Williams, Niel Jurist, Diana Redman, Press.

ITEM - From Chief of Police

2014-0029          Police Supporting Docs

1.          SRO Contract for Schools

Chief requesting to enter into contract with schools for school resource officers (SROs); splitting 50/50 with schools; overtime picked up by schools. Larick asked about the process. Chief said we have 2 great SROs; took one out because she was pregnant; will put her back after maternity leave. Larick asked is it a certain number per year concept; when do they move on. Chief said it depends; depends on how they interact with schools and kids; have a good thumb on it; want to make sure we have a good fit.

RECOMMENDATION: 1st reading, no need to come back; 2nd reading, consent agenda.

ITEM - From Director of Public Service

2014-0035          Service Supporting Docs

1.          Supplemental - Replacement of Water/Sewer Truck

Franey said on March 25, 2 employees were filling potholes; couple vehicles came off of freeway; one struck the parked City truck; no one was injured but truck was totaled; will be receiving payment from insurance company; asking for supplemental from water and sanitary fund in order to cover replacement of that truck; not an old truck; not brand new.

RECOMMENDATION: 1st reading, no need to come back; 2nd reading, consent agenda.

ITEM - From City Engineer

2014-0034      Engineer Supporting Docs

1. Sanitary Sewer Deed Acceptance

Wetherholt said have a deed of easement for sanitary sewer that we will be able to build this summer; able to get that recorded; this is routine legislative process to accept.

RECOMMENDATION: 1st reading, no need to come back; 2nd reading, consent agenda.
