Ryan Jolley arrived at 7:02 p.m.

B. ADDITIONS OR CORRECTIONS TO THE AGENDA - None.

C. HEARING OF VISITORS -

Resident Linda Robison, 627 Dunoon Drive in Hunters Ridge, explained her home is located in reasonable proximity to the pool; she isn't happy with the amount of noise due to the very loud music played at the pool; on Friday she stated her neighbor called to ask them to turn down the music and he was treated very poorly; subsequently the music was turned up louder after his request; the police were called, decibels were measured and allowed by code; pool staff turned up the music after police officer left; uncalled for to treat them poorly; the pool staff directed the speakers at their homes; unable to enjoy their property or be outside; requested Council consider reviewing the decibels in the code to avoid the excessive amount of noise they have been enduring; don't mind some noise; wants to be treated with respect. President Larick thanked her for her time and input about this matter.
