National Testing Network, Inc. (NTN) provides professional testing and recruitment services for public safety departments, including but not limited to fire, law enforcement, communications and corrections. NTN services go far beyond the current state of testing through the use of national testing facilities, high attention to customer service, experience and expertise in all issues surrounding public safety employment testing, high quality simulations and a fully integrated process that provides candidate information always available to participants.

National Testing Network is owned and operated by professional testing experts with Ph.D.'s in Industrial/ Organizational Psychology and over six decades of combined public sector testing experience. NTN is fully integrated with its parent company, Ergometrics and Applied Personnel Research, Inc. and uses Ergometrics' high quality simulations. Ergometrics is a nationally recognized leader in test development. Established in 1980, Ergometrics has designed the most comprehensive video testing and job simulation testing programs in the nation. Ergometrics has provided personnel testing services to thousands of clients and millions of applicants in the United States and Canada.

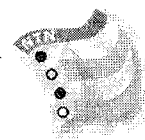

NTN offers full time testing centers and satellite testing centers across the country. The annual license cost for a department to utilize NTN's applicant testing and recruitment services in Ohio is $150.00 per year for all available job classifications.

| Test Licensing | Each Job Category License Fee |

NTN WILL PROVIDE

NTN will provide the testing services at designated testing facilities for the sole purpose of testing candidates for the specific job classifications stated in the scope of the agreement. NTN, at its sole discretion, may make changes to the tests materials, including, but not limited to alternate forms, scoring keys, additional sections, different test items, different tests and/or test administration strategy, including location.

NTN will provide an applicant website for test scheduling, testing facility, test administration, database of applicant scores and consultation regarding scores and services. NTN will provide access to candidate information for candidates that submit scores to the Licensee. This information will include basic application information as defined by NTN. NTN recruitment services will include, but are not limited to, internet advertising on job posting services.

The candidate information collected will be determined by NTN and reported to the Licensee. Licensee job description information and logo will be posted on the NTN website. Any additional application materials and assessments will be the responsibility of the Licensee to collect.

LICENSEE WILL PROVIDE

The Licensee will provide information regarding Licensee's organization and applications for use on the NTN website, including organization logos. The Licensee will also provide links on Licensee's websites to direct candidates to the NTN website for test sign-up. The Licensee will also engage in reasonable recruitment and advertising measures to bring candidates both to the NTN website and Licensee's website for pre-employment purposes. Licensee is required to inform NTN when a candidate has been hired using NTN. NTN will remove this candidate from consideration from other departments.

MARKETING MATERIALS

The Licensee grants NTN permission to use its name, logo and other identifying information for the purposes of marketing NTN services. This permission may be revoked by Licensee at any time.

National Testing Network sincerely appreciates the opportunity to earn your business and help support an efficient, cost effective applicant recruitment and screening process.
