C. HEARING OF VISITORS.

Rebecca McBride-Smith, 307 Rivers End Road said she and her husband settled in Gahanna because it was close to work and they found a house they liked. She shared that she didn't feel that she had a connection with the City until she saw signs about 2 years ago for an Arts Council event called Ignite. She said she stayed in Gahanna that night and learned at that event that, even if you don't consider you're an artist, we all do things that are incredibly creative every day, even if it is cooking for your family. That night at Ignite was when she began to feel a stronger sense of place in Gahanna. She said that the arts aren't what we do but how we do it and that she loves that the GAAC exists for the community and celebrates everyone in it, not just artists. They believe anyone can have a meaningful connection to the arts. She feels that she is a more thoughtful and engaged member of the community because of her involvement with the Arts Council. She continued, 2 years ago, she got off the couch and went to an Art's Council event and that one night transformed her entire experience of living in Gahanna but the great thing is that if the community decides to support the arts, anyone can have the experience she had which is a powerful thing. It can change people's lives and transform the City of Gahanna.

K. COUNCIL COMMENT

Mrs. Angelou said that she brought with her the Columbus CEO magazine and in the one article there were 4 CEOs and each one of them had a connection with the City of Gahanna which she thought it was pretty admirable to have that connection. She just thought it was an amazing thing to see and for the community. She also brought the article about first floor retail space being hard to fill. Lastly she said she had a wonderful Thanksgiving and Saturday with OSU beating Michigan. Holiday Lights was just amazing. It was so crowded, packed and home town-ish.

Mr. Larick agreed that Holiday Lights was amazing.

Mrs. McGregor said that Bunnie Geroux passed away and at the funeral home, her daughter said that she was such a pioneer and had such a personality. She was the first woman to run for Mayor and only lost by about 100 votes, that was probably in the late 60s, early 70s and she dogged Joann Davidson until she got us designated as the Herb Capital of Ohio which took a lot of work. She started the Herb Education Center and was just a wonderful friend.

Mr. Metzbower said that Holliday Lights was another amazing event, the energy and spirit, it just doesn't feel like the holiday until the tree lighting. Congratulations to all of those that put that together.
