J. COUNCIL COMMENT

Mrs. Angelou thanked Mr. King for coming and for his contribution to Gahanna. She also thanked Leslee for her 20 + years of service with the Chamber and wished her all the best.

Mr. Renner thanked Reverend King for delivering a beautiful invocation and thanked him for his service to the community. He also thanked Leslee for her service and congratulations on her retirement.

Ms. Bowers thanked Leslee Blake for her service to the community. She said that she attended the annual luncheon and heard the CEO of Pelatonia speak about communities. She read part of "Letter from a Birmingham Jail" by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. that was specifically about communities and how it ties us all together: "Moreover, I am cognizant of the interrelatedness of all communities and states. I cannot sit idly by in Atlanta and not be concerned about what happens in Birmingham. Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere. We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly. Never again can we afford to live with the narrow, provincial "outside agitator" idea. Anyone who lives inside the United States can never be considered an outsider anywhere within its bounds." April, 1963. She thanked Reverend King for his service to the community.

Mr. Larick thanked Reverend King and Leslee Blake for their service to the community.

Mr. Schnetzer said that a recent investment newsletter focused on the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. It highlighted a sermon delivered on February 4th, 1968 to the Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia titled "The Drum Major Instinct". He encouraged members of the audience and Council to listen or read the sermon and believes there is a lesson there for all of us even today, 52 years later.

Mrs. McGregor thanked Reverend King for his service to the Gahanna Police Department and other agencies as well as the churches he served in. She thanked Leslee for her years of service with the Chamber. She recognized that Jerry Isler, former Finance Director, passed away. He served the City for over 20 years.

Mr. Leeseberg thanked the Boy Scouts that helped with the Pledge of Allegiance, Reverend King for his service to the community and Ms. Blake for her service with the Chamber.
