Agenda for this meeting was published on August 16, 2019.

B. ADDITIONS OR CORRECTIONS TO THE AGENDA.

C. HEARING OF VISITORS.

Swearing in of Police Staff:

- a. Peyton O'Dell (Management Analyst)
- b. Amy Moneypenney (Management Analyst)
- c. Tasha Rutan (Court Liaison)
- d. Cornelius McGrady IV (Reserve Officer)

Chief Spence: We are in a very unique position where thankfully we've been able to re-staff and able to hire 3 civilian support staff members which alleviates a great deal of work that our sworn officers have been doing for a very long time. But in addition to that, we were able to steal from three agencies some very talented people.

Management Analyst from Columbus Police Payton O'Dell, she's been working with management, doing officer scheduling, posting assignments for Columbus, an 1800 member department and will be doing the same for us and we're grateful to have her here with us. Amy Money Penny came to us from Westerville PD, she was a long time ago Parks team member for the City of Gahanna. For the last several years she's worked for Westerville Police Department running the property room, evidence technician doing a lot of audit work, so we were able to bring her over from Westerville PD. On the Civilian side, Tasha Ruan came to us from the Franklin County Prosecutor's office Ron O'Brien and before that she was with Grove City PD. So we were able to get somebody with a lot of in depth court knowledge, so she joins us from the Franklin County Prosecutor's Office. Finally, we don't often swear in reserve officers, but we have a very unique opportunity. We brought on Cornelius McGrady. Cornelius was a special agent with BCI for a number of years, he was a forensic engineer, computer forensics, he decided to jump over and work at PNC bank in the private sector but since he has law enforcement in his heart he decided to come to Gahanna.

The Mayor Performed the swearing in.

He said also, don't forget about the events Taste of Gahanna and Pies in the Park and that it's a good time to get out with the family and enjoy yourself. On a legal note, he said he will be putting together an RP for next year's litigation services that will be taken over by the next City Attorney. But he will initiate and start that this year.

L. COUNCIL COMMENT

Mr. Leeseberg: Again, congratulations Chief and PD. Sounds like we have some great people moving in. Great news.

Mrs. Angelou: It's great seeing those tax dollars going for good things. Thank you for getting such wonderful staff members for you as well as the reserve officer. We have the best police department in the entire area and I think you know that Chief and part of it is because of all the work that you put in and Mr. Thomas, the Safety Director, thank you for being so visible all of the time. Thank you.

Mr. Larick: I just want to congratulate the folks added to the police department. We're starting to see the right sizing in the organization and the City is starting to function more effectively.

Mrs. McGregor: I'm glad to see that we were able to backfill some positions and that's a great thing for the Police Department. Just quick, I don't know if I bought this up before but we had, the Historical Society, we have a bed and breakfast which is supposed to generate some income to preserve our houses, our museums and all of June we had nobody, no guests. Which last year was slow too for some reason. But around July 20th we hit and we've done over $2,000 worth of room rentals and different things. We had a book club meet there last week for an evening and we had a grandmother who did a grand camp and they rented the whole house to have her six grandchildren stay with her in the house so they stayed in an old house and went to Friendship Park. We also had 2 open houses the first Saturday of the month. Kids from camp Friendship came down and we did a program and took them on tours of the houses, I think there were about 65 people and we did a craft with them in the basement, they broke them into groups so we didn't have too many of them at one time. We participated in arts in the alley so we've been trying to be busy this summer and participating in activities.

Mr. Renner: Chief, congratulations, you've heard it multiple times up here but thank you for doing that.

President Metzbower: I would reiterate what my colleagues have said, congratulations on the growth and positive movement within our community and new labor force. I would like to thank Claire Yoder for coming out tonight from Jefferson Township. Thank you folks for being here the whole meeting and Thanks to our CVB director for being attentive to what's going on here.
