

I do not think its a good idea to spend money on snow removal equipment when we have already some, and this year the amount of intake of money wil be less. I think we should not spend money only on items we cannot hod off for ayear when money will be more stable. THerefore the smow removal whould not be purchage and this thought should be for other things

Lawrence Herer
614 327-5656