J. OFFICIAL REPORTS:Mayor2021-0149

Mayoral Proclamations and Report for August 2, 2021.

The Gahanna Division of Police submitted their 2020 Annual Report; full scope of operations; full of data and metrics; commends Chief Spence and Deputy Chief Lawless; worked with the marketing team to finalize; tomorrow evening is the National Night Out from 5:30-8 p.m. at Sunpoint Park; this Saturday Pelotonia will travel through Gahanna for the first time in its history; the Corvette Club will have a classic car show on Saturday at Creekside as a fundraiser for Nationwide Children's Hospital; will be bringing back Support Gahanna day; Creekside Hops & Vines tickets are now available; last day for pool operations is coming up in August and September; have been working with Angelou on source of income legislation and so the development team is looking into that to understand the needs of residents; COVID regulations and guidelines are ever changing but no changes at City Hall for now; have attached a proclamation for National Black Business Month in support of our black-owned businesses.

City Attorney

Mularski stated that the Speed Way Towing case has been appealed.

K. COUNCIL COMMENT

Angelou said that she missed having people be a part of the meetings and is glad to see people in the audience; is celebrating her 55th wedding anniversary this week. Bowers attached two reports, one for June and one for July; thanked residents for reaching out; thanked the Parks Department for great communication; stated that schools will begin soon and to be mindful when driving. Renner stated that he's grateful to be back at the dais and see the community and be able to connect; thanked Mayor Jadwin for the Steve Nye proclamation; it is paramount to the community that we have dedicated people for a cause; that is what builds community; told the story of how he was going to the CVS nearby his home and when he arrived, there was yellow tape covering the door and there was a police presence; if not delayed by neighbors then he would have been at the store when it was held up; have taken active shooter training but when it happens near your home it is a different level of awareness; lastly, the street poles are being repainted which looks great. Schnetzer stated that he sends his sympathies to the Nye family; hopes they find comfort in his lasting legacy. McGregor stated that she had four grandchildren taking lessons with Nye over the winter; appreciated his efforts in getting the kids exercise despite COVID; is such an important life skill; all her grandchildren have learned endurance by being part of the swim team; Nye will long be remembered by many of his students. Larick stated that the temporary Gahanna Library is open at the Hunter's Ridge Shopping Center while the new branch is under construction; so many lives were effected by Steve Nye; the pools are a success in part due to him.
